You may realise that our pricelist now showcase the products in different categories and in a different format than the previous pricelists.

WE ARE GETTING READY FOR ON-LINE ORDERING via the food services marketplace

FOODSUPPLY collected information from hundreds of restaurants, hotels and food manufacturing companies and found that there is a preferred/"standard" format in which the food industry categorises and search for products.

We have already implemented these categories for your convenience and also changed our hardcopy pricelist which will enable you to find the products with a lot more ease. Below is an image layout of the main Categories
